THE AMERICAN

Read what follows: Sunday
American opens great contest for race round the world for boys; girls to tour Europe!

THE BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN to-day inaugurates the greatest travel and educational movement ever put forth by any newspaper.

This plan is to send four schoolboys of Greater Boston around the world and four schoolgirls of Greater Boston will be given a trip to Europe.

Full details of this great undertaking will be found on page 8 of this issue of the AMERICAN.

It is the day and night dream of every man and woman to make a trip to Europe. The AMERICAN offers a much better trip than this for the boys—a race around the world. What fascination there is in this suggestion!

Boys and girls, do you feel interested in that? Of course you do! Well, then, briefly, the plan of the BOSTON AMERICAN is to send four schoolboys around the world, first for its educational value, and second in an effort to break the record of 80 days, made eight years ago by Charles C. Fitts, a Chicago schoolboy, who was sent on that trip by Hearst's Chicago American.

An equal number of schoolgirls will be sent to Europe. The boys will be guided either by teachers of their own selection or competent men chosen by the BOSTON AMERICAN.

Fifty Other Trips Beside.

Besides these trips which will be made in the best possible manner, fifty boys and girls will be sent on a tour of New York, Washington and Niagara Falls in a special train of Pullman cars and in charge of men and women, who will guard them from all harm and see that they get all the benefit possible out of this part of their vacation.

The BOSTON AMERICAN will pay all the expenses. Not one of the boys or girls will have to spend a penny. There are only two conditions:

First—The minimum age limit is fourteen years.

Second—The contestants must be pupils in a public, private, parochial or Sunday School in Greater Boston—regular pupils in good standing.

What the Boys Will See.

Think of it, boys and girls of Metropolitan Boston! When was such an chance ever offered to you? Think of traveling in the finest trains, in the great ocean greyhound, through the capitals of Europe, while all around you are strange faces and noises and sights, through Europe, and over the vast Russian steppes, where Napoleon marched out through Siberia and its battlefields of recent days, over the Asian Sea, through the forests of the Mikado, back again over the vast Pacific, into your own land, the stars and stripes over your head, rush homeward across our own sweeping Western plains and through our cities to Boston! This is the way one team of two boys and one girl will make it.

A second team starting at the same minute will travel over the same identical route, going in the other direction. Then there will follow a race where the routes will be watched by all the world.

Trip Open for All.

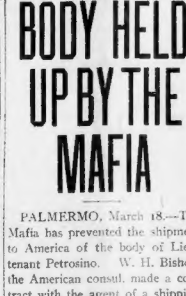

Who is going to make the trip? Perhaps you. You, the schoolboy or schoolgirl who now reads this. There is nothing to prevent you. The contest will be as free as our open United States. Just fill out the application coupon in this newspaper, send it to the Boston World Editor, Boston American, Boston, Mass., and a letter will be mailed to you giving you full particulars and instructions.

"She Shot to Save My Honor." Daughter's Testimony at Mrs. Silsby's Trial for Murder.

Rarely has there been a more dramatic scene in a court room than when Miss Frances R. Silsby, the pretty sixteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Rose G. Silsby, took the witness stand to-day in the East Cambridge Court and swore that her mother shot Clinton E. Childs of Boston to protect the girl's honor.

The mother is on trial for manslaughter. She followed her daughter on the witness stand. She declared that she shot to protect her daughter's honor when he tried to force his way into her daughter's room at her home at Central Street. The revolver was sent to the police. The girl's testimony was the first of the case.

Mrs. Silsby demonstrated in the way how she held the revolver when she fired, holding the weapon in both hands and using the index finger as a trigger. The crowd in the court room was almost breathless when she told how the two shots were fired.

Parents Need Not Worry.

Parents need have no fear of entrusting their children to the men and women who will safeguard their every moment. Nothing that the human mind and all the vast resources of the Hearst newspapers make do to prepare the way to remove every possible obstacle, will be left undone.

With the modern methods of transit there is no real danger. It is one vast, unending, educating, inspiring panorama of human sights and scenes, and so far from the worst march ever known, it is a time as bright as the day.

Over in Siberia the tedious twelve-day journey of crossing the American River has been eliminated, and now one makes that trip in the private boudoir of a broad gauge Russian train de luxe.

No steamships or berths for the giants of that country. Whole rooms and bunks and bath tubs on the train, music and a library. In fact, these trains are said to be almost the equals in comfort of the magnificent liners on which both boys and girls will make their ocean journeys. The big steamships are in four days what formerly required five and six but a few years ago.

Fill out your application blank at once. Remember that a good start in a race is a large way toward victory.

Get a Good Start.

Remember that a bad start is a serious handicap. Don't let anybody tell you that it is too late. The boys picked eight years ago both say they will have a chance to win. They were asked what that characteristic bluish of American boys and girls will make it. The boys are making brilliant successes in life, bigger and better than for themselves or their employers as the direct benefit of their life-time training.

COOPER JURY IN DEADLOCK

NASHVILLE, March 18.—The jury in the case of the murder of John R. Cooper, Jr., by John A. Cooper, Jr., is still in a deadlock. The jury was called for the morning of March 17, but has not yet reached a verdict. The case is one of the most sensational in the history of the state. The jury is composed of twelve men, and has been deliberating for several days. The judge has expressed his confidence in the jury, and has refused to grant a mistrial. The case is expected to continue for several more days.

LEWIS LOSES FOR THE FIGHT

LEWIS, the champion boxer, has lost his title to the champion boxer, Jack Johnson. The fight took place in London, and was one of the most exciting in the history of the sport. Lewis was the favorite, but Johnson won by a knockout in the eighth round. The fight was a great success, and drew a large crowd. Lewis is expected to fight again soon.

BECAUSE OF SHIP CANAL

Plans for building the Cape Cod Canal are being discussed. The canal would connect the Atlantic Ocean with Long Island Sound, and would be a great benefit to the shipping industry. The project has been discussed for many years, but has not yet been completed. The canal would be about 25 miles long, and would have a depth of 20 feet. It would allow ships to travel from the Atlantic to the Sound without having to go around Cape Cod.

EARL GRANARD AND COUNTESS, FORMER BEATRICE MILLS

Earl Granard and Countess, former Beatrice Mills, are in London. The couple has been married for several years, and has a large family. They are both well-known in London society. The Countess is a very beautiful woman, and is very popular. The Earl is a very successful man, and is very wealthy. They are both very kind and generous people.

CUMMINGS IN PLEA SAYS FREE IRELAND

Montreal, March 18.—The day will close with Ireland as a free country was the prediction made by Matt Cumming, ancient president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, in an eloquent address at St. Patrick's. Cumming is a very popular speaker, and his address was very well received. He said that Ireland should be free, and that the people of Ireland should have the right to self-government. He also said that the people of Ireland should be free to worship as they please.

JOHNSON WILL ACCEPT CHALLENGE OF CORBET; MUST POST A FORFEIT

CHICAGO, March 18.—Jim Corbett is now out with a challenge to me, and he says that he will not fight me until I will post $10,000 as a forfeit with Al Smith of New York. It looks as though Jim wants a little advertising in my name, but if he is sincere I want to accept his bid. As usual, I want him to pay the forfeit. I will cover it, and you bet I will fight him.

This was the statement of John Johnson, champion of the world, made early this morning, and Jim is deeply interested, so far as his statement goes.

Corbett, who is now in West Virginia, today asked the following challenge to Chicago:

Corbett's Challenge.

I am tired of seeing my fellow Johnson going around with his chest out and his head as high as a pin. I will not take the right that any man has and hereby challenge Jim Johnson to a fight for the world's championship. I will not take any number of rounds or to a knock in any fight in the world. I will forward from Indianapolis a check for $10,000 to Al Smith, the well-known statesman, at the Illinois Hotel in New York, as a guarantee of my good faith.

Jim is a running daily walk here. It is due to keep in condition and to keep his weight off. Johnson was not a little angry when he saw the statement that I made calling him a quitter. He simply said: "I will fight him."

He says that he gets away with it. Jim says that he gets away with it. Jim says that he gets away with it. Jim says that he gets away with it. Jim says that he gets away with it.

HART AGAIN FIGHTS TO FIGHT SCHRECK

COLUMBUS, O., March 18.—The two best stand-up boxers between Marvin Hart of Louisville and Mike Schreck of Chicago met in a fight at the Columbus Athletic Club. Hart, who is a champion of the world, was the victor in the fight. He knocked Schreck out in the second round. The fight was a great one, and the crowd was very large. Hart is a very strong boxer, and Schreck is a very good one. The fight was a very close one, and the crowd was very interested.

MODERATION IS THE SECRET OF OLD AGE

"How to live to be a hundred" is the subject discussed by James J. Jeffries in his article today. "Moderation is everything," according to the retired champion, is the great secret of old age.

By JAMES J. JEFFRIES

The wisdom of William Morris, in 1890, he said: "Moderation is the secret of old age. It is at that age, I have always believed, that a man or a woman should be in his or her prime, and I can't see any reason why the majority of our people should not live to be a hundred."

Average Man Lacks Time

Just suppose we all took care of our health as much as does the unfortunate man who has lost it, can you imagine what a healthy man would be in a short time? It is at that age, I have always believed, that a man or a woman should be in his or her prime, and I can't see any reason why the majority of our people should not live to be a hundred."

The comic is presented in a 2x3 grid of panels. The top row shows a man in a checkered shirt and hat convincing a man in a suit to join a string quartet. The middle row shows the man in the suit practicing his violin while the woman looks on. The bottom row shows the man in the suit explaining his decision to the woman, who is skeptical.

Panel 1 (Top Left): A man in a checkered shirt and hat is speaking to a man in a suit. The man in the checkered shirt says: "HENPECKCO, WE'D LIKE TO HAVE YOU JOIN OUR STRING QUARTETTE. YOU USED TO PLAY THE FIDDLE ONCE!". The man in the suit responds: "SURE, I'LL JOIN!".

Panel 2 (Top Middle): The man in the suit is holding a violin and bow, looking at a speech bubble that says: "I'M JUST GETTING MY OLD VIOLIN DOWN... I THOUGHT I'D PRACTISE A LITTLE!". The woman in the white dress is looking at him.

Panel 3 (Top Right): The man in the suit is holding a violin and bow, looking at a speech bubble that says: "WELL, YOU'LL NOT PRACTISE IN HERE! - GO OUT INTO THE WOOD SHED!". The woman in the white dress is looking at him.

Panel 4 (Bottom Left): The man in the suit is sitting on a bench, playing the violin. Musical notes are floating around him. The woman in the white dress is standing next to him, looking at him.

Panel 5 (Bottom Middle): The man in the suit is holding a violin and bow, looking at a speech bubble that says: "WHY, LOVE, I'VE JOINED A LITTLE STRING QUARTETTE AND I'M JUST GOING TO THE CLUB TO PRACTISE WITH 'THE BOYS', DEAR.". The woman in the white dress is looking at him.

Panel 6 (Bottom Right): The man in the suit is holding a violin and bow, looking at a speech bubble that says: "SO THAT'S WHAT THIS NEW MUSIC BUG OF YOURS WAS, EH. AN-EXCUSE TO GO OUT NIGHTS AND LEAVE YOUR POOR WIFE TO STAY HOME. YOU JUST STAY IN THE HOUSE HERE, WHERE YOU BELONG, UNDERSTAND?". The woman in the white dress is looking at him.
